Current Events

FRENCH CLUB

On November 4th at 8:00 p.m., the following play is being presented under the auspices of the French Club at St. Michael University School, 3400 Richmond Road:

"Les Fourberies de Scapin" comédie de Molière présentée par "Les Jeunes Comédiens de Montréal". Admission is $.50 for students and $1.00 for adults.

CASINO NIGHT AT THE SUB

The Rugby Club will hold its annual Casino of fun and frolic in the SUB between the hours of 7:00 p.m. and 1:00 a.m., on Saturday, November 6th.

There will be games of chance played with "funny money", a cabaret, amateur hour, auction and two bars to cater to the need of your refreshments.

All proceeds will go toward the forthcoming tour of the Rugby Club of Australia and New Zealand. Those who have attended in the past will recall that this is a very entertaining evening and will be sure to come again - those who have not attended in the past, should make every effort to form a party and join the fun.

"MASSEY LECTURES"

This year's Massey Lectures entitled the "POWER OF THE LAW" will be given by DR. JAMES ALEXANDER CORRY, Canadian authority on constitutional law and political process. The lectures will be carried on the A.M. network six Monday evenings beginning November 1st, at 11:03 P.M.

On the F.M. network they will be broadcasted twice weekly on Tuesday and Thursday, for three weeks beginning November 2nd, at 7:00 P.M.

Dr. Corry, Rhodes scholar and principal of Queen's University from 1961 to 1968, has written several major books on legal, constitutional and political subjects. Although Dr. Corry retired as Principal of Queen's in 1968, he continues to be very active in academic and government work. In his lectures, Dr. Corry will discuss the nature of the law, the function it performs in our lives, and the appropriate scope of its action. These lectures should be of interest to all of us.

"JOHN SYNGE COMES NEXT"

Maurice Good will be presenting a one man theatrical portrait of J.M. Synge, "JOHN SYNGE COMES NEXT", at the University of Victoria on Friday, November 5, at 8:00 P.M. in MacLaurin 144.

Mr. Good has presented this programme numerous times at the Abbey Theatre in Dublin, as well as in London and New York. The programme is created from the notebooks, poems, letters and plays of Synge; it sheds so much light upon Synge that the script is about to be published in book form.

The University Lecture Series is sponsoring this programme in a year which celebrates the centenary of the birth of Synge.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

Two Films on Australia will be shown on Monday, November 15th, at 12:30 P.M. in the Cornett Building, Room 112. Program runs about 45 minutes. Painters are Russell Drysdale and Sidney Nolan. All interested are welcome to attend. Admission is Free.

SCOTTISH FOLKSINGER

Jean Redpath, nationally-known singer of Scottish songs and ballads, will perform in the Lounge of the Student Union Building at 12:30 P.M. on Tuesday, November 9th, 1971. Her program is entitled "SCOTTISH BALLADS AND FOLK SONGS".

She is both a traditional singer, and a contemporary artist. Her programs include rich background information on her country, people, language and music. Her appearance here is under the auspices of the University Lecture Committee and further information may be obtained by phoning Local 532.

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

Dr. Norman-Lief Patterson, formerly of the Dept. of Mathematics at U.B.C., is visiting the Mathematics Department here and is giving a series of 5 lectures on "Differential Geometry". The dates are October 28, 29, and November 1, 2, & 3, and the lecture will take place at 4:00 P.M. in Clearihue 301.

GRAPHIC ARTIST

Mr. "Jim" Bennett has moved his office from Building "W" to Hut "F". He is associated with the office of the Director of University Relations and may be reached by telephone through Local 781.

DIRECTOR OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS

Mr. Maurice N. Cownden B.J., the newly appointed Director of University Relations, is located in the Sedgewick Building, Local #780 & 781. Mr. Cownden will assume the responsibilities of

F. A. Fairclough (FLOYD THE FAIR) who has been Acting Director of Information Services pending this appointment, therefore, all material for publication in the NEWSLETTER should be mailed to the Director of University Relations, Sedgewick Building.

Mr. Cownden was born in Victoria and worked here in radio broadcasting and public relations for over ten years. He is a former student of UVic, having attended the first two years university here before his graduation from Carleton with a Bachelor of Journalism Degree in 1968.

The Newsletter welcomes Mr. Cownden to the Campus and is confident that his presence will improve the publication in the near future.

FACULTY NEWS

Dr. Irvin Burbank has been invited by the Orange County School System and the Education for Tomorrow Association to conduct a mathematics workshop-seminar at Anaheim, California during the latter part of November.

Dr. Burbank will be a speaker at the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, Name-of-Site Meeting to be held at the Sahara Hotel in Las Vegas, February 13, 14 and 15, 1972.

Dr. J. B. Tatum (Physics) advises that the 1970 Annual Bird Report for southern Vancouver Island, which details the observations by some fifty observers of the 235 bird species seen in the area in 1970, is now available from him via campus mail at a cost of $1.84.

In mid-June 1971, the University was host to the 34th Annual Meeting of the Association of Pacific Coast Geographers. Approximately 200 persons from Canadian and United States institutions attended. The Presidential Address was given by Dr. David Luten, University of California at Berkeley at an evening banquet. The title of his paper was "With Crisis Today What Tears for Tomorrow". The Local Arrangements Committee was under the Chairmanship of Bryan Farrell with Donna Schwartz as Secretary. Other members were Frank Leversedge, Peter Murphy, John Bryant, Gill McDade, Ian Norie and Chuen Yen Lai. A field excursion on the Saanich Peninsula was conducted by Derek Reimer.

Dr. Bryan Farrell (Geography) spent the summer in Honolulu and on the Island of Maui, continuing work on land attitudes and development. Focus of activity was at Honolua, Kaanapali and Wailea where large scale recreational developments are either underway or in the planning stages.

FRENCH DEPARTMENT

An article on Soumission et Revolte dans les Essais de Montaigne by Dr. Elaine Limbrick has just been published in the September issue of the Revue de l'Universite de Moncton.

UNITED APPEAL

The Faculty and Staff of UVic. are giving tremendous support to the United Appeal so far in the campaign.

The first 132 gifts received as of October 27th, amounts to a total of $7,662.00. This is an average of $58.00 each according to UVic. Chairman Mr. Peter Darling and his "Darling Computer".

If you have not received a Payroll Deduction slip and wish to contribute through Payroll Deduction, please phone Local 431 and one will be forwarded to you by mail.

Congratulations and Thanks to all donors. Hoping there are many more to come.
